Religious Education

St. John Bosco (15 Aug.1815-31 Jan. 1888)

John Melchior Bosco was an Italian Roman Catholic priest, educator and writer of the 19th century. While working in Turin, where the population suffered many of the ill-effects of industrialization and urbanization, he dedicated his life to the betterment and education of street children, juvenile delinquents, and other disadvantaged youth. He developed teaching methods based on love rather than punishment, a method that became known as the Salesian Preventive System. A follower of the spirituality and philosophy of Francis de Sales, Bosco was an ardent devotee of Mary, mother of Jesus, under the title Mary Help of Christians. He later dedicated his works to de Sales when he founded the Salesians of Don Bosco, based in Turin. He taught Dominic Savio (St. Dominic Savio), of whom he wrote a biography that helped the young boy be canonized. In 1875, he began to publish the Salesian Bulletin. The Bulletin has remained in continuous publication, and is currently published in 50 different editions and 30 languages. In 1876, Bosco founded a movement of laity, the Association of Salesian Cooperators, with the same educational mission to the poor. Bosco established a network of organizations and centres to carry on his work. Following his beatification in 1929, he was canonized as a saint in the Roman Catholic Church by Pope Pius XI in 1934. ODDS AND ENDS

There is a box of assorted dishes in the parish office, left over from funeral dinners that need to be claimed and picked up, otherwise, they will be tossed. Also, a pair of men's gloves were found in one of the pews. If these are yours you can claim them in the parish office.
