Religious Education

Reminder: There will be no choir or RE classes next Wednesday, October 15, due to Pep Week at the High School. See all of you next week, October 22, when choir and RE classes resume.

Sunday Dismissal

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells a story about a king who gave a wedding feast for his only son. The food was cooked and everything was beautifully decorated. He invited all the important people. But, they were all too busy and no one came to the wedding. So the king told his servants to go and invite everyone they saw. They were not the most important people (the rich People) they were ordinary people who wanted to come. They came and had a wonderful time at the wedding.

When Jesus talks about a wedding feast he is talking about God's Kingdom. Jesus tells us that God invites everyone into the kingdom, but only those who say yes get to come into God's Kingdom.

This week: Think about God's Kingdom and how you could get invited in. Some of the ways you can say yes to God's invitation is by forgiving someone, by helping someone, be joyful, or help others who are lonely. When you do these things you are part of God's Kingdom.
