The Holy Guardian Angels - October 2 - Many of us may have learned the simple prayer, "Angel of God, my guardian dear..." Behind that familiar prayer is a beautiful truth of our Catholic faith: God gives His angels to watch over and assist His people. The Church teaches that angels are real spiritual beings created by God. They serve Him and participate in His saving plan. The Catechism tells us that from the beginning of our lives until death, we are surrounded by the watchful care and intercession of the angels. Our Guardian Angel is not a replacement for God, nor is an angel something to be worshiped. Rather, our guardian angel is a servant of God who accompanies us, protects us, and helps lead us toward the Lord.

Saints Michael, Gabriel and Raphael, Archangels – On September 29th, the Church celebrates the Feast of Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, the three archangels whose names are revealed to us in Sacred Scripture. Angels are real spiritual creatures, created by God to serve Him and to participate in His plan of salvation. They are not gods or objects of worship; rather, they point us toward the God whom they serve. The Church joins the angels in praising and adoring the Lord.

St. Michael is the great defender of God's people. His name means "Who is like God?" In Scripture, Michael appears as a protector and leader in the battle against evil. We especially remember his role in Revelation, where he and his angels fight against the dragon.

St. Gabriel is God's messenger. He appears in the Gospel of Luke to announce to the Blessed Virgin Mary that she would become the Mother of the Savior. Gabriel's message at the Annunciation stands at the heart of our faith: through Mary's humble "yes," God's plan of salvation entered the world in a new and profound way.

St. Raphael appears in the Book of Tobit, where he accompanies Tobias on his journey and brings healing to his family. His name means "God heals." Through Raphael's story, we are reminded that God accompanies us even when we cannot see the way ahead.

The archangels remind us that God is never distant from His people. He sends His heavenly messengers to serve His purposes and assist us on our journey toward Him. Saints Michael, Gabriel, and Raphael, pray for us!

Words cannot express the gratitude that we have for all of your cash donations, item donations and support that made our 3rd Annual Fall Fest a raging success. To the committee members, volunteers and attendees, thank you seems too small for what we accomplished. We raised $55,000 dollars to help fund the remaining amount owed on the windows.

The number of people who pitched in is too numerous to thank individually, however, please know that we couldn't have succeeded without you! Once again, thank you! Fall Fest Committee
