One day when Heaven was filled with His praises, one day when sin was as black as could be, Jesus came forth to be born of a virgin, dwelt among men, my example is He, Word became flesh and light shined among us, His glory revealed. One day they led Him up Calvary's mountain, they nailed Him to die on a tree, suffering anguish, despised and rejected, bearing our sins, my Redeemer He is, hands that healed nations, stretched out on a tree, and took the nails for me. Living He loved me, dying He saved me, buried He carried my sins far away. One day, the stone rolled away from the door, then He arose, over death He had conquered, now is ascended, my Lord evermore. Death could not hold Him, the grave could not keep Him from rising again. The trumpets will sound for His coming, the sky with His glories will shine. He justified freely forever.
