Religious Education

In today's Gospel, Jesus tells us he is our Good Shepherd. Sometimes like sheep we wander, sometimes we wander away from God. Some ways we might wander is forgetting to pray, we may be unkind to others, being selfish or doing things our way and not God's way. God knows when we wander we are not safe. So he sent his son Jesus to be our Good Shepherd and help us when we wander. Jesus is always ready to lead us back on the path of doing the right things.

Christ has risen! He has truly risen! We rejoice and are glad! And so we pray for others.

This week let us pray for the children who will be making their First Holy Communion next Sunday, April 24th.
